Subscription rates for learned societies

The recommended membership fee depends on the number of members your Society has, as follows. Please note:

- (a) Societies that offer a journal discount to BPA members may pay the lowest fee (£20). If you would like to make such an arrangement please contact the BPA Treasurer, Prof. Stella Sandford (s.sandford@kingston.ac.uk)
- (b) The BPA appreciates that the size of membership does not necessarily correlate with the level of disposable income or financial security. If you are unwilling to pay the recommended membership fee for your Society's size, please simply pay as though for a smaller society.
