

British Philosophical Association - Application for life membership

Full membership is open to anyone who is competent to teach or pursue research in Philosophy, as demonstrated by their training or achievements. This includes research students, individuals with a research degree/teaching experience but not currently employed in a teaching or research position in Philosophy, teachers of Philosophy in schools and retired academics. If you are unsure as to your eligibility please contact the Executive Secretary by emailing admin@bpa.ac.uk.

Life membership is open to anyone eligible for full individual membership. The rate is £100 for anyone under 60 years of age, £50 for those over 60 years of age.

1. Name (incl. title):

2. Address (for correspondence)

(Note that some journal discounts may be available only to UK-resident members)

Tel:

Email:

3. Qualification for full membership - please complete (I) or (II)

(I) currently teaching or researching Philosophy – please provide details of the institution/school, department (or equivalent unit), and status, indicating whether full-time or part-time.

(II) qualified to undertake teaching or research in Philosophy – please provide details of qualifications and/or experience

4. Subscription

I wish to become a lifetime member of the BPA.

I enclose a cheque for £100 as I am under 60 years of age []

I enclose a cheque for £50 as I am over 60 years of age []

(Please place a cross in one box)

Cheques should be payable to 'The British Philosophical Association'.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

To be returned to: Prof. Stella Sandford, BPA Treasurer, c/o Humanities, Kingston University, Kingston upon Thames, Surrey KT1 2EE.