

British Philosophical Association - Application for Individual/Retirement Membership

Membership is open to anyone who is competent to teach or pursue research in Philosophy, as demonstrated by their training or achievements. This includes postgraduate research students, individuals with a research degree/teaching experience but not currently employed in a teaching or research position in Philosophy, teachers of Philosophy in schools, and retired academics. If you are unsure as to your eligibility please contact the Executive Secretary at admin@bpa.ac.uk. The membership fee is £15, or £8 unwaged (this includes all postgraduate research students).

Retirement membership is open to anyone eligible for full individual membership. The rate is £50 for anyone 65 years of age or older.

Please note: For all membership types, setting up a standing order is preferable to a cheque.
